

Report on farmers-scientist goshti and inauguration of farmers' hostel at ICAR-RCER, KVK, Ramgarh

Inauguration of farmers' hostel on 25th august 2018 at ICAR-RCER, KVK, Ramgarh was done by Dr. Trilochan Mohapatra, DG- ICAR and secretary-DARE. In this programme, Dr. D. K. Yadav, Head, division of seed science and technology, IARI, New Delhi, Dr. P. Kausal, Vice Chancellor, BAU, Ranchi, Dr. K. K. Sharma, Director, IINRG, Ranchi, Dr. T.R. Sharma, Director, Indian Institute of Agricultural Biotechnology and Mr. Amrendra Kumar Gupta, member of regional advisory committee, NABARD, Jharkhand, were present. Dr. B. P. Bhatt, Director, ICAR-RCER, Patna welcome to chief guest, other dignitaries and farmers. He gave in brief the achievement of KVK activity of one year. On this occasion farmer-scientist goshti was organized. Honorable chief guest said that Jharkhand is rich in natural sources still depends on other states for their requirements. He suggested about urgent need of some important method to combat with climate change and decreasing water table. He emphasis that rural youth should be establish entrepreneurship in agriculture which is attracting several youth from engineering and information technology. This is good sign for rural livelihood and food security. He gave emphasis to work with all line departments in convergence mode for effectively implementation of schemes. He facilitates ten farmers of the district for their excellent work in agriculture field. He also distributed pumping set, soil health card, HDPE vermi bed and seed of horsegram with input for demonstration to five farmers from each group. He urged to scientist community to work with farmers for income doubling and provide the technological basket to farmers as ecological requirement. Vote of thanks was given by Dr. A. K. Singh, Head, ICAR-RCER, R.C., Ranchi.

Farmers-scientist goshti and inauguration of farmers' hostel at ICAR-RCER,