

ICAR Research Complex for Eastern Region, Patna

On the occasion of world Food day 2021, ICAR Research Complex for Eastern Region, Patna organized a Training cum Kisan Goshthi programme on "Agricultural Resources Management in Flood Prone area" at Ladaur, Muzaffarpur on 16.10.2021. In this programme around 50 agricultural farmers were participated. Programme was initiated with the welcome address by Dr. Akram Ahmed, Scientist, ICAR RCER Patna and he also delivered a lecture on water management strategies in flood-prone areas for enhancing livelihood.

Dr. Jyoti Kumar, Scientist described about the prominent livestock diseases and their remedial measures in flood prone areas. Dr. Rohan Kumar Raman, Scientist emphasized on the possible opportunities in wetlands ecosystem to increase the farmer's income level. Mr Jaspreet Singh, scientist stressed on aquaculture resources management in flood prone areas for increasing fish productivity. During this programme a healthy interaction were made between farmers and scientists. Programme was ended with vote of thanks by Dr Raman. In this programme, 150 mango plants of Amrapali, Malda and Chousa varieties were also distributed among the farmers.

View of Programme organized by ICAR-RCER, Patna at Ladaur, Muzaffarpur